Sandye Simpson

National Account Manager, Air Force

Q. Do you have a nickname?

A. My birth name is Sandra, but I have been called "Sandye" since grade school. The spelling is a bit unusual, I don't know how that happened.

Q. What is your biggest accomplishment?

A. Being a mother and grandmother. I have five kids and six grandkids. I love spending time with each one doing the things they like to do. I'm just a big kid at heart.

Q. What's your favorite movie?

A. All time–The Sound of Music. Most recent–Black Hawk Down. It is based on a story about the son of an FTS colleague, Dan Blackburn.

Q. Something no one knew about you until now?

A. In my next life, I want to be a personal shopper for men. I just need 10 men with more money than good shopping sense.

Q. What do you do to relax?

A. Shop. I love Home Depot, Lowe's and the Container Store. I also have a favorite jewelry store in Ft. Worth–Chambers.

Q. What is the biggest risk you've ever taken?

A. I moved as a single mom from my hometown. That risk turned out to be my greatest fortune. I met and married JR; then he and I moved to Virginia to work for FTS Central Office.

Q. Favorite quote?

A. Work like you don't need money; love like you've never been hurt; dance like no one's watching.
